

[Narita Airport] Fixed Fare Table

As of November 14, 2022

This is the fare amount applied to a taxi with a distance-based fare of 500 yen for the first ride.

Calculated taking into account long-distance discounts.

Public discounts are discounts for people with disabilities and discounts for those who have returned their driver's license, and will be applied on presentation of photo ID included in the notebook (including smartphone app) and verifying your identity.

The late-night/early-morning surcharge applies when the whole process from getting on to getting off is between 22:00~05:00 the next morning. It does not apply if you enter or leave the applicable time zone during the ride.
